Our Summer Sons

Preston & Kathy Lee's Host Family Editorial

This will be our fifth year hosting players, or as we call them, "Our Summer Sons." We have loved welcoming them into our home and into our hearts. We enjoy going to the RedWolves games and cheering for them.

During the college baseball season we even go see them play for their college teams. We like to keep in contact with each of Our Summer Sons and are proud of them all and everything that they have accomplished along the way.

One of Our Summer Sons (Chaz Pal '15) was drafted by the Houston Astros organization! We were able to go see him play this past summer and support him as he pursued his dream (of making it to the Major Leagues).

"Even though they are only here for a few months, they will always be a part of our family forever."

2017 Roster Additions Announced-

The Florence RedWolves have officially announced the contract signings of six individuals that will call Florence home for the 2017 summer.

Competitive baseball is no oddity in the Florence area, and certainly not for the RedWolves. The trend will stay consistent as the organization will be bringing in elite Division I prospects from across the country.

Three of the prospects that have been strategically plucked are members of the 2016 NCAA College World Series National Championship team from Coastal Carolina University.

Nothing says elite more than a player from a National Championship team, but to add three? We did it ;) !

The RedWolves have picked up Kevin Woodall, Jordan Gore, and Matt Beard, all starters for the Chanticleers this season.

Woodall is a towering first baseman that “brings a big body and a bigger game,” said Florence head coach Travis Graves.

Jordan Gore will be returning to Florence for his second full season with the RedWolves, after having spent his first in 2014.

Matt Beard rounds out the CCU triplet, defending behind the plate for his battery mates.

Also suiting up for the Red and Black this summer will be two University of Southern Mississippi Golden Eagles in Matt Wallner and Storme Cooper.

Wallner, a will be assisting the club in numerous ways. The RedWolves skipper is expecting big things from him offensively and defensively, as well as on the mound.

Cooper comes in as a middle infielder and ready to be “a great leadoff hitter and defender with lots of range,” Graves mentioned.

Joining the squad will be James Williams, Cornell Nixon and Tyler Webb.

Williams is a freshman with the Georgia Bulldogs and is expected to make an impact on the mound for the RedWolves this summer.

Nixon will be another valued asset to the middle infield, “with good hands and lots of range,” Graves said. Nixon is currently a Colonel at Eastern Kentucky University.

Tyler Webb is also being added to the heavy mix of experience talent, traveling from the University of Memphis. Webb will be roaming the outfield for Florence and “will be a great addition to our ball club,” Graves explained.
